INDIGENOUS ALLYSHIP & ANTI-RACISM WEBINAR

Thursday, October 17th, 2024 • 7:00-9:00PM • Online via Zoom • Fee: $10.00 •

Suitable for child care providers, child care workforce and parents.

Being an ally is not a static identity, it is not a badge of honor, it is a sign of privilege. Allyship is also not declared but based on the context in which you ACT. This course unpacks the similarities and differences for being an ally to Indigenous peoples in relationship to other ally contexts.

Main learning ideas:

- Define allyship, solidarity, and anti-racism
- Explore examples of allyship in the Indigenous context
- Identify strategies for talking about racism and cultural safety with teams

Presenter: Len Pierre Consulting - Noelle Saemerow

At Len Pierre Consulting (LPC) we believe in challenging the status quo for Reconciliation and Indigenous Cultural Safety and Humility in organizations. The way we challenge the status quo is by offering meaningful learning experiences to educate the heart, mind, and spirit of everyday professionals.

Everything we do is an invitation to enhance your professional practice by embedding applicable strategies into your work to ultimately lean towards systemic transformation where organizations are culturally safer, equitable, and transformative.

We are a multidisciplinary team of consultants and facilitators who advise and train teams/organizations on Indigenous Cultural Safety, Reconciliation, Decolonization, & Anti-Racism.

SUPPORTING CHALLENGING BEHAVIOURS THROUGH RELATIONSHIP-BASED GUIDANCE STRATEGIES

Saturday, October 19th, 2024 • 11:00AM-1:00PM • Online via Zoom • Fee: $10.00 • Suitable for child care providers and child care workforce.

In this workshop participants are asked to think about what 'challenging' means. In the field, we often seek strategies to deal with what we find challenging but many who have been in the field for years know that what might work one day, may not work the next. In this workshop, educators will be given a variety of strategies and asked to critically reflect on their expectations to shift the narrative of what is challenging. In this workshop educators will cover:

- Reflect on educator biases and what they find challenging within group childcare settings.
- Strategies to enhance inclusive capacity building and inclusive environments.
- Review practical strategies to observe and make meaning of behaviour.
- Talk about navigating challenging conversations with parents and offering community resources to parents.

Presenter: Ana Valle Rivera

Ana is a proud mother of three, a public speaker, a consultant, and the founder of Early Years Thriving. Since 2007 Ana has gained experience working with children and families using inclusive and trauma-informed approaches. Through Early Years Thriving Ana provides Workshop Facilitator Training and hosts Online Summits. Ana has a background in ECE, a Bachelor's Degree in Child and Youth Care, and is completing a Master's in Professional Education in ECE.

SUPPORTING CHILDREN WITH ANXIETY

Thursday, October 24th, 2024 • 7:00-9:00PM • Online via Zoom • Fee: $10.00 • Suitable for child care providers, child care workforce, and parents.

Everyone experiences anxiety at one time or another. At what point does it become a concern? How can we tell when children are feeling anxious? How do we know when to create safety and comfort? When do we encourage children to bravely face their fears? This workshop will explore these questions and how anxiety effects our brains and bodies. Learn tips and strategies for supporting children with anxiety that can also be applied to ourselves.

Presenter: Carrie Liske

Carrie Liske is an Art Therapist and Registered Clinical Counsellor working in private practice in Nanaimo. She is passionate about engaging the creative process to support children and their families struggling with anxiety and other challenges. Carrie also spent several years working in childcare prior to her counselling career. She is the proud mother of three school aged children.

DOWN TO SIGN: THE BENEFITS OF USING SIGN LANGUAGE

Thursday, November 7th, 2024 • 7:00-9:00PM • Online via Zoom • Fee: $10.00 • Suitable for child care providers, child care workforce, and parents.

This introductory workshop is intended for individuals who live or work with children who are developing their language. Participants will gain an understanding of communication development, how and why we communicate, and debunk common myths and facts about using sign language. Participants will get the opportunity to learn about early communication strategies, including the benefits of using sign language to enhance their interactions and promote communication development. Participants will get the opportunity to learn some keyword vocabulary in American Sign Language (ASL), discuss meaningful ways to integrate it into their day and learn about sign language resources available to them, including continuing their knowledge of ASL from Deaf and Hard of Hearing instructors.

Presenter: Liv Meriano

Liv completed her Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology, with a minor in Audiology at the University of British Columbia. She has a strong passion for working with students with developmental disabilities, being neurodivergent herself, and providing communication access. Professionally, Liv uses sign language with the students she works with at DSRF and personally with her Deaf family.

Clear Expectations & Boundaries

FREE!

Parent Education Webinar

Research shows that children crave structure and benefit from consistency. Clear expectations help children better understand what is going on and be able to predict the next steps which can leave them feeling more self-secure and less worried. We can provide this structure for them in any environment by teaching them WHAT the expectations and boundaries are. We will discuss the importance of boundaries, HOW to CREATE them and how to SUPPORT them in any challenging situation so that YOU survive and the children thrive.

Saturday, November 16th, 2024 • 10:00-11:30AM

Online via Zoom • Cost: FREE!

Everyone is welcome to attend!

EMBRACING INTUITIVE APPROACHES TO PRACTICE: INTEGRATING CARE AND EDUCATION

Saturday, November 16th, 10:00-11:30AM • Online via Zoom • Fee: $5.00 • Suitable for child care providers and child care workforce.

In the early year's field, educators often navigate a landscape shaped by parent and supervisor expectations, organizational policies, and licensing regulations. These constraints can lead to a more technical approach to practice. In this workshop, we will explore what it means to take an intuitive approach while respecting the many boundaries of the field. This session is about bridging education and care, logic and heart, and effectively navigating the demands of your work. In this workshop, educators will cover:

- How to balance intuitive insights with professional standards and regulations, creating a harmonious approach that respects both emotional and logical aspects of ECE.
- Learn strategies for developing deeper connections with children, families, and others, fostering trust and a sense of security that supports the child's learning and development.

Presenter: Ana Valle Rivera

Guiding, Caring & Discipline

Parent Education Webinar

When a child causes hurt, we've got to do something but what is the most effective thing to do without making the situation worse or potentially damaging the child? Disciplining a child has become such a taboo topic these days and many people have found that the common disciplinary techniques such as timeouts, punishments and consequences don't even work anymore. We will discuss exactly WHAT to do, WHEN to do it, WHY and HOW to do it all while maintaining the connection and promoting self-regulation.

Wednesday, January 22nd, 2025 • 10:00-11:30AM

Online via Zoom • Cost: FREE!

Everyone is welcome to attend!
